Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into Hell The third day he rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From there he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; The holy Catholic Church; The communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

MINISTER'S DESK

If you feel the Holy Spirit is directing you to bring about a needed change in the church, the first thing required of you is to pray. As you pray the Holy spirit will confirm whether you are the one chosen to bring about the change or not. The fact that he has shown you a particular need does not mean that you are the one to meet that need. You pray, and if he has chosen you, he will give you the grace and strength to do it. He will guide you step by step as to what you should do about it, and the you will be doing it right. Sometimes when you pray, he will show you someone else in the fellowship with the requisite gifts to handle the situation. Then it will be your responsibility to pray for that person, to go and talk with him, and to share the vision with him. Perhaps he has been feeling the Holy Spirit moving him in that direction, and you going to him will be the confirmation that this is the right direction for him. You encourage him to be obedient to the vision the lord gives to you both. As you pray together and draw others onto it, the circle of those who are concerned widens and you find that in due course the lord moves hearts and things begin to change .We must depend on the lord who brings the need to our attention, to also show us how we are to go about meeting it .This often requires patience .Patience is a fruit of the Holy spirit which develops in the very circumstance that threatens it. The gift of leadership involves recognizing the gifts of others, helping them develop their gifts and making room for them to do so. Young people who are anxious to preach may well have the gift of preaching, but it is a gift which has to be developed. If you have a gift of preaching, that does not mean that you will immediately find yourself in the pulpit. A person who has the gift of preaching is often attracted by the art of preaching and feels it is something he would like to do. This attraction does not mean that the gift is mature enough to be used in the congregation of God's people. That is where the fruit of patience comes in. The true servant-leader who realizes that young Christians are interested in preaching will find ways to give them opportunities to develop their gradually, by letting them give their testimony, or speak to smaller groups. In this way the pastor and other members of the congregation can see who really has the gift preaching.
